WRIT APPEAL No. 2252 & 2253 OF 2005

COMMON JUDGMENT : (Per Hon'ble Sri Bilal Nazki, ACJ)

These two writ appeals are filed against the common order passed in writ petitions No.21470 of 2004 and 4697 of 2005.

Admittedly, the writ petitioners were in possession of Government land, measuring Ac.12-52 Cents in Survey No.212/2 of Lakshmipuram H/o. Kanithi village in Gajuwaka Mandal of Visakhapatnam District. They have been evicted and the land has been given to the Fishermen Colony.

The only ground agitated before us and before the learned Single Judge, by the appellants – writ petitioners, is that, as they are in possession of the land, it should have been sold to them or alienated in their favour, as the Municipality concerned had passed a resolution. But, the learned Counsel for appellants has not been able to show us, as to how the Municipality's resolution confers any right on the appellants, to hold on to this land. The writ petitions were misconceived and were being rightly dismissed by the learned Single Judge.

Writ Appeals are accordingly dismissed. No order as to costs.
